HOME OF SHOWJUMPER AMY GRAHAM

In 2009 Amy Graham arrived in Europe alone with 2 horses from Australia. 10 years later she is proud to be able to support students from any country to experience international competition, using Haras Du Ry as a professional base.

Amy aims to pass on her wealth of knowledge from her 10+ years of experience on the European showjumping circuit by mentoring young riders and training horses to 5 star international level.

YOUNG RIDER LIVE-IN TRAINING

Haras Du Ry's live-in training program concentrates on ensuring you have a thorough knowledge of the business of international show jumping based in a safe, high quality, multi lingual environment (English, French and Portuguese).

Whether you have long term ambitions to stay or want a short term visit to gain international experience, Haras du Ry is the place to be.
